

Account and Security

Customers can reset their password using the "Forgot password" function on the login page.

The password reset link remains valid for 30 minutes.

Customer support cannot see existing passwords.

Customers reporting suspicious account activity should:

1. change their password,
2. review recent orders,
3. contact customer support.

Suspected account takeover or unauthorized purchases must be escalated immediately to a human support agent.